

Karen Hugo -
6705 Dover Ct
Bartlesville, OK 74006

Broomfield,
(918) 335-1927

Quincy Broomfield (m) Mildred Sturgis children:

Logan

Lanberth

Captolah "Cap" Sylvester
Stubbs

* Walker Mills b. 26 Apr 1892

Dewey

Bell

Jimmy

Mattie or Mary

Josie

Phoebe

Quincy

Supposedly Copiah Co, Miss

41
51
61
81²⁰

PASCOULA LIBRARY
GENEALOGY COLLECTION
DO NOT CIRCULATE

der ments

police charged — John Thornton Wil-with stealing a wolf, possession of an outboard marijuana with intent to n Oliver B. Hav- deliver.

10. — Cynthia D. Phillips, rd M. Patrick, possession of marijuana He is charged with intent to deliver.

iously breaking — Edna McPeck, aging the apart- gravated assault. She is e affiant on Oct- accused of causing bodily ayne, breaking aiding and abetting her ring into the daughter in the use of ings residence brass knuckles on Jan. 20, hamp Gay on 1975.

is also charged — James Hinman, burglarceny during lary. He is charged with breaking and breaking and entering f the Gay resi- Collta's Restaurant and cean Springs Lounge in Pascagoula arged that he with intent to steal on Dec. onal property 5.

$350. — Robert Lee Stephens, Bryan, three burglary. He is also sex crimes on charged with breaking

Two of the and entering Collta's Res-ire alleged to taurant and Lounge with red on May 24, intent to steal on Nov. 11. hird listed as

— Wesley Schiwe Jr., aggravated assault. He is d B. Williams, charged with causing body injury to the affiant of marijuana ily with a monkey wrench on to deliver, Nov. 26.

— Elliott Beaugez, burgof marijuana lary and larceny. He is n of marijuana charged with breaking f to deliver, and entering the home of olph Attaway, Mrs. Lucille Boone and of marijuana stealing personal property on Nov. 17, and l to deliver.

thy L. Johns, — George G. Phillips, of marijuana possession of marijuana to deliver, with intent to deliver.

Coast Guard rescues three off Horn Island

Three persons were rescued from Horn Island early today where they had been marooned since Friday.

According to the U. S. Coast Guard Station in Mobile, Anna Wesson, 21, and Jefferson Hendricks, 21, both of Panama City, Fla., and Bill Hart, 21, of Mobile, left from the old Coast Guard station at the west end of Beach Boulevard Friday afternoon in an 18-foot sailboat.

Democratic leaders

Jackson County Democratic Executive Committee member Joan Gilley (left) and committee chairman Billy Broomfield (right) meet with presidential candidate Sargent Shriver. Shriver addressed a meeting at the First Baptist Church in Moss Point on a campaign visit to Jackson County. (Mississippi Press Photo by Larry Ransom)

In Moss Point

First presidential campaign arrives

By JOE ROGERS

Sargent Shriver brought the first presidential campaign ever to visit Jackson County to Moss Point Sunday.

Shriver, a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, spoke to a capacity crowd at the First Baptist Church on the corner of Main and Bayou streets on a swing through Mississippi.

The candidate said he thought the visit "says something bad about all the other candidates. If a president can find the time to go to Moscow, it seems he should find the time to come to Jackson County."

A relative newcomer to political races, the 1972 Democratic vice presidential nominee said the current campaign is his first race on his own.
He asked the predominantly black crowd to judge him on his record of public service. The one-time director of the Peace Corps; Office of Economic Opportunity and ambassador to France said he favors "putting government back on the side of the people."

Community action programs to involve government and citizens were one idea Shriver proposed to diffuse governmental power. The brother-in-law of the late President John F.
Kennedy drew positive response with references to the Head Start program.
"I remember when I had the idea for it (Head Start)," Shriver said. "It was in January 1965. People said it was impossible, that we couldn't find the teachers."

After 11 years, Shriver said, the program should be even bigger than it has grown to be. Millions more children should be in it, he said.

Calling the family the "cornerstone of our national life," Shriver said the Foster Grandparents program he began was one way to get the young and elderly together.

Admitting he was late entering this his first personal campaign, Shriver said he had still been in the thick of governmental dealings.

"Where were they (other candidates) when we had to get Head Start through the Congress? Where were they when we started the Youth Corps?
Where were they when we started Foster Grandparents?"

Shriver said such programs had "provided some of the keys to open the doors. I'm here today to ask you to help me to continue this struggle to open the door to opportunity for all Americans."

Shriver continued his campaign in the state with an afternoon trip to Biloxi. Workers with the Shriver committee said the candidate is expected to make one or two more trips to the state before the Democratic convention.